

Shellye L. Lyons is a native of Muskogee, Oklahoma. She obtained an Associates Degree of Applied Science with an emphasis in Paralegal Studies and is currently pursuing a Bachelors Degree in Business Management with an emphasis in Marketing & Graphic Design.

As CEO of Paradise Legal Support & Secretarial Services, she provides specialized business support services to a variety of individuals, authors, attorneys, corporations, nonprofit organizations, and small business owners. She has served as Assistant Editor/Writer for KRGM.com Magazine, Entertainment/Marketing Manager & Copy Editor for 411 Sports & Entertainment News, Promotions/Marketing Intern for EIEG, LLC/D-Town Records, Copyeditor for Shereese Hair & Beauty Magazine, Guest Writer for Rolling Out Magazine & Urban Sound Magazine, Managing Editor for two newsletters and Writer for the Heartbeat Magazine of Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship Church in Dallas, Texas where Dr. Tony Evans is Senior Pastor.

Additionally, she serves as President/Executive Director of the National Business Women Enterprise Network (NBWEN), a faith based, non-profit organization providing support to “womenpreneurs” and the Host and Executive Producer of NBWEN Talk Radio show airing on Fridays at 4PM (CST) on the ever growing Blogtalk internet radio network.

Mrs. Lyons has over 18 years combined experience as a Legal/Executive Secretary, Paralegal, and Administrative Assistant/Office Manager combined with over eight years as Entertainment/Marketing Manager, Managing Editor, Assistant Editor, Staff, Guest Writer and Copyeditor for various newsletters, newspapers, and magazines.

Mrs. Lyons shares her personal experiences as a teen mom and single parent to motivate youth, teen, and other singles parents, encouraging them to overcome adversity by setting goals, completing their education, and being the best they can be with Christ. As a businesswoman, she mentors and educates others on topics such as “How to Establish and Grow Your Business”, “Finding Your Niche”, “Strategies for Marketing Your Business”, and many more.

Her greatest desire is to travel to far away places to experience God's beauty all over the world and emulate the character of the Proverbs 31 Woman and the Women of Titus. Along the way, she plans to continue to minister to and encourage youth, single parents, and women through all of the gifts God has given her in order for them to develop their relationship with Christ and reach the fullest potential for themselves and future generations.

Mrs. Lyons is married to her best friend, Mr. Cedric Lyons, Sr, the mother of seven beautiful young people, and grandmother to two wonderful grandsons. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, writing, playing piano, and singing. She completed her first Ebook in 2009, with plans to write a stageplay, as well as continue to develop the talents and gifts of her children and others who cross her path.

